AREA OVERVIEW

US BANKRUPTCY AUCTION

Just north of NASA's John F. Kennedy Space Center sits a quiet coastal neighborhood in Brevard County called Mims. The upper Indian River runs through Mims, as does Mosquito Lagoon, and east of that, a small strip of beaches borders the Atlantic Ocean. Due to its geography and abundance of protected parkland, Mims lends itself naturally to spending time outside. Locals here like hiking, biking, kayaking, canoeing and spending time on the Canaveral National Seashore's secluded beaches. There are a few museums in town and some locally loved restaurants, and whenever the Space Center launches a rocket, everyone finds a spot in one of Mims' parks or beaches to gather and watch it fly.
