Marketable Timber

Approximately 10,000 walnut trees were planted on this farm in 1974. A recent appraisal reported a harvest value of $66,500 for the current timber. This value will continue to increase as the trees mature and the stand is managed. Contact the listing agent for a copy of the timber appraisal.

Comments

This is a one-of-a-kind property located in northeast Linn County adjoining Rehrauer Natural Area. Buffalo Creek crosses through the northeast corner of the farm, and a small, bubbling creek passes through the southern portion. This would make an attractive building site with income and recreational opportunities.
