DUAL AGENCY DISCLOSURE: Dual agency occurs when one broker or salesperson represents both parties to a transaction, or when two salespersons licensed to the same broker each represent a party to the transaction. Dual agency requires the informed consent of all parties and means that the broker or salesperson owes the same fiduciary duties to both parties to the transaction. This role limits the level of representation the broker and salespersons can provide and prohibits them from acting exclusively for either party. In dual agency, confidential information about price, terms, and motivation for pursuing a transaction will be kept confidential unless one party instructs the broker or salesperson in writing to disclose specific information about him or her. Other information will be shared. Dual agents may not advocate for one party to the detriment of the other.

CONSENT TO DUAL AGENCY

Broker represents both parties involved in the transaction, which creates a dual agency. This means that Broker and its salespersons owe fiduciary duties to both parties. Because the parties may have conflicting interests, Broker and its salespersons are prohibited from advocating exclusively for either party. Broker cannot act as a dual agent in this transaction without the consent of both parties. Both parties acknowledge that

- a) confidential information communicated to Broker which regards price, terms, or motivation to buy, sell, or lease will remain confidential unless the parties instruct Broker in writing to disclose this information. Other information will be shared;
- b) Broker and its salespersons will not represent the interest of either party to the detriment of the other; and
- c) within the limits of dual agency, Broker and its salesperson will work diligently to facilitate the mechanics of the sale.

With the knowledge and understanding of the explanation above, the parties authorize and instruct Broker and its salespersons to act as dual agents in this transaction.
