AUCTION CONTRACT OF SALE (continued)

In the event that the Seller shall be unable to convey to Buyer a good and merchantable title, the Buyer may, at his sole election, require that the Seller return to the Buyer all deposit moneys. After such payment, neither party shall have any further liability to the other and this agreement shall terminate and have no further force or effect.

It is understood by the Buyer that said down payment would constitute liquidated damages in the event of a breach of this contract by the Buyer. Further; Seller reserves the right to pursue any remedies available to him, including but not limited to resale of the subject property at Buyers expense, without notice to the Buyer.

Ground rent (if any), rent and water shall be adjusted and apportioned as of the date of settlement. All taxes, general or special, and all other public or governmental charges or assessments against the premises (which are or may be payable on an annual basis) (including metropolitan district, sanitary commission or other benefit charges), are to be adjusted and apportioned as of the day of sale and are to be assumed and paid thereafter by the Buyer. The cost of all documentary stamps, as required by law, recordation tax, agricultural transfer tax and transfer tax if any; where required by law shall be paid by the Buyer.

POSSESSION of the property shall be given to the Buyer at settlement.

The property is to be held at the risk of Seller until legal title has passed or possession has been given to the Buyer. Seller agrees to immediately cause Buyer to be named as co-insured on any insurance policies presently in existence on the subject property as their interests may appear.

This contract contains the final and entire agreement between the parties hereto, and neither they nor their agents shall be bound by any terms, conditions or representations not herein written. The parties hereto hereby bind themselves, their heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns for the faithful performance of this contract. The Auctioneer acts only as agent between Seller and Buyer and is not liable for any damages or claims resulting from this Contract.
