Motleys Asset Disposition Group and Cannon's Auctions Join Forces to Simplify Estate Settlement

New Partnership Delivers a Single, Trusted Solution for Families During Difficult Times

Richmond, VA, May 2026 – Motleys Asset Disposition Group and Cannon's Auctions today announced a strategic partnership designed to ease the burden of estate settlement for families navigating one of life's most emotionally difficult moments. Together, the firms provide a compassionate, one-stop solution that manages every aspect of an estate—from business assets and real estate to personal property.

“Settling an estate shouldn't add stress to an already difficult time,” said Mark Motley, CEO and President of Motleys. “By partnering with Cannon's Auctions, families work with experienced professionals who understand both the emotional weight and the practical complexities of estate settlement. Together, we simplify the process—so families can focus on what matters most.”

The partnership eliminates the need for families to coordinate multiple vendors, manage competing timelines, or navigate unfamiliar processes alone. With decades of combined experience, Motleys and Cannon's handle the details—providing clarity, efficiency, and peace of mind.

Comprehensive Estate Settlement Services Include:

- Business & Commercial Assets – Strategic liquidation of inventory, equipment, and commercial real estate, supported by professional appraisals, inventorying, and auction services to maximize value while navigating legal and financial complexity.
- Residential Real Estate – End-to-end support preparing, marketing, and selling homes, delivered with sensitivity to the personal significance of the property.

Returning Value to Assets.

REAL ESTATE • AUTOS • INDUSTRIAL & COMMERCIAL EQUIPMENT • BUSINESS LIQUIDATIONS

Individual Memberships

- Personal Property – Professional auctions for furniture, collectibles, antiques, vehicles, and treasured belongings—handled with respect and a focus on maximizing estate returns.
- Probate & Estate Support – Assistance navigating probate requirements and estate administration, helping executors meet legal obligations with confidence.

“Families facing estate settlement are often overwhelmed—grieving while managing legal deadlines, property concerns, and countless decisions,” said Clide Cannon, Owner of Cannon’s Auctions. “Together, we bring order, transparency, and peace of mind at a time when it’s needed most.”
