Common Interest Community Board
PROPERTY OWNERS' ASSOCIATION DISCLOSURE PACKET NOTICE

Section 54.1-2350 of the Code of Virginia requires that this form accompany disclosure packets issued pursuant to § 55.1-1809 of the Code of Virginia.

The lot being purchased is in a development subject to the Property Owners' Association Act ("Act"). Properties subject to the Act are considered "common interest communities" under the law. Owning and living in a community governed by a common interest community association has benefits and obligations. Upon accepting title to a lot within a community governed by a common interest community association, membership in the property owners' association ("association") is mandatory and automatic. The Act specifies the contents of the disclosure packet, and fees that may be charged for preparation and distribution of the disclosure packet.

In addition to information provided in the disclosure packet, the following are important considerations when purchasing a lot in a community governed by an association.

Assessments

Each owner is responsible for and obligated to pay regular assessments and, if applicable, other assessments, including special assessments, and other mandatory fees to ensure that the association's financial requirements are met. Assessments are mandatory, imposed by the association for expenses incurred for maintenance and services provided for the benefit of some or all of the lots, reserves for future expenditures, the maintenance, repair, and replacement of the common area, including for the construction or maintenance of stormwater management facilities, insurance, administrative expenses, and other costs and expenses established in the governing documents. Failure or refusal to pay assessments and any other mandatory fees may result in imposition of late fees, interest, costs and attorney fees, recordation of a lien, filing a lawsuit and obtaining judgment against the lot owner, foreclosing on the lot to enforce the lien, and other actions permitted by the governing documents and the Act.

Declaration and Other Governing Documents

Governing documents typically include a declaration, plats, articles of incorporation, bylaws, rules and regulations, and architectural standards or guidelines (“governing documents”). The governing documents, association policies, and other information contained in the disclosure packet describe the basis for living in a community governed by a common interest community association. The form of governance, nature and scope of services, as well as limitations on property use are addressed in the governing documents, and association policies.

Owners have the responsibility, among other things, to comply with the restrictive covenants and association policies that outline what owners may and may not do on lots and common area. Use of common area, financial obligations of owners and other rights, responsibilities and benefits associated with ownership in a common interest community are subject to the provisions of governing documents and association policies. Some decisions are made by the association board of directors, while other decisions are reserved to a vote of association members. Failure to comply with the governing documents and association policies may result in monetary penalties, a lien against the lot, suspension of certain privileges, and legal action against the lot owner.

Limitations

The governing documents and association policies may establish limitations affecting use of individual lots and the common area. While the limitations applicable to each association may vary from community to community, § 54.1-2350 of the Code of Virginia makes particular reference to the following. The governing documents and association policies may establish:

- Limitations on an owner’s ability to rent the lot.
- Limitations on parking and storage of certain types of motor vehicles and boats within the community.
- Limitations on maintenance of pets on a lot or in common areas.
- Limitations on operation of a business within a dwelling unit on a lot.
- Architectural restrictions applicable to an owner’s lot.
- The period or length of time that the declarant (developer) may control membership on the board, make decisions on behalf of the association, and therefore operate the association. This period is often referred to as the declarant control period. At the conclusion of the declarant control period, control of the association is transferred to the members.

This list does not represent all limitations that may affect lots within the common interest community.

Important Notice for Purchasers
