Why use Nicholls Auction Marketing Group to sell your property?

Nicholls Auction Marketing Group has set and maintained an overall sales ratio in excess of 95% since 1980. Our standards for conducting an auction are simply higher, and the marketplace has responded, allowing us to be the leader in getting properties sold and closed. For property owners who are serious about selling—who wish to maximize their returns while reducing the time, risk and frustration of trying to sell through a traditional approach—our customized individual owner services are a perfect fit.

Nicholls Auction Marketing Group will customize and execute a results oriented auction marketing campaign that maximizes exposure and creates active competition for the purchase of your property. This results not only in full and current market value, but also preserves opportunities for greatest price, while limiting risk of lower price. Individual sellers also benefit from the convenience of controlled viewings, standardized terms and conditions of sale, and a known sale and closing date.

Our 55+ years' experience is broad-based allowing us to bring together the necessary resources for a successful sale of practically any type of real, as well as personal property. For more information please go to nichollsauktion.com and allow us the privilege to add your name to our growing lists of satisfied clients.

Terms and Conditions

ONLINE ONLY AUCTION TERMS:

Auction Terms and Conditions (for online-only auctions): In addition to the “General Terms and Conditions” referenced below, which apply to all of our services, the following Auction Terms and Conditions (“Auction Terms”) apply to the auction described above. Please review these Auction Terms and the General Terms and Conditions prior to participating or registering to participate in the auction, as they form a legally binding agreement between you and Nicholls Auction Marketing Group, Inc. (“Nicholls Auction”). Terms used but not defined in these Auction Terms will have the meanings ascribed to them in the General Terms and Conditions.

Contact the Auction Coordinator with Questions: Please contact the auction coordinator, Tony Wilson (540-748-1359), immediately if you need additional information.

Approval to Bid: Approval to bid is subject to completing an on-line bidder registration form and verification of the required earnest money deposit by auction personnel. The approval of online bidders is subject to confirmation by the auction coordinator.

Earnest Money; Deposit Payment: A $15,000 (for commercial building), $5,000 (vacant lot), $10,000 (home) or $30,000 (3 parcels purchased together) earnest money deposit will be required from the successful bidder and is due immediately after confirmation of Final Bid. If you are declared the successful bidder (or Buyer), the credit card that you provided at registration will be charged (and you agree Nichols Auction is authorized to charge your credit card) $500 toward your deposit. The remaining earnest money deposit of $14,500 (for commercial building), $4,500 (vacant lot), $9,500 (home) or $28,500 (3 parcels purchased together) must be in the form of cashier’s or certified check (United States Bank) or wire transfer to Nicholls Auction Marketing Group, Inc. and is due immediately. The entirety of the remaining balance of the final Purchase Price is due at closing within 45 days or as soon thereafter as seller’s closing documents are available. Buyer shall be responsible for all wire transfer fees. You may be asked to show proof of funds for the deposit (via text or email) prior to being approved to bid. The deposit is non-refundable. The deposit will be held in a non-interest bearing escrow account until settlement.

Closing: If you are the Buyer (as defined in the General Terms), you must sign (in person or electronically) all documents and contracts immediately after the acceptance of the Final Bid. Buyer will also be required to make an appointment with the closing agent to pay the balance of the purchase price and receive the deed to the property. Closing is to take place on or before 45 days from date of auction (unless prior arrangements have been made with and agreed to in writing by Nicholls Auction). Buyer acknowledges and agrees that time is of the essence. Buyer will pay for all of their closing costs associated with the transaction (please see the General Terms).

Real Estate Salesperson/Broker Acknowledgment: Although having a real estate agent real estate salesperson/broker is not required, if you are working with a real estate salesperson/broker, the real estate salesperson/broker must complete the Auction Bidder Representation Form available here: Auction Bidder Representation Form. In order for your real estate agent real estate salesperson/broker to be compensated, the Auction Bidder Representation Form must be completed and properly submitted no later than 6 a.m. on the day of the auction, which is 09/14/2026 (no exceptions). A registered real estate salesperson/broker can only represent one buyer at each auction event. If the auction at which you wish to bid has a live bidding component, your real estate salesperson/broker must attend the auction event in person regardless of whether you are bidding live in person on site or bidding online off site, and your real estate salesperson/broker must adhere to all terms.

Auction Premium: A 10% auction premium will be added to the Final Bid and will become part of the purchase price (10% Auction Premium Example: Bid Price: $100,000, Plus 10% Auction Premium of $10,000; Total Contract Price = $110,000). Auction Premium is non negotiable. Information is not Guaranteed; Sale is "AS IS" with all Faults: Please refer to the Property Information Packet for more details about this auction. All information and dimensions made available by Nicholls Auction concerning the property were derived from sources believed to be correct, but are not guaranteed to be correct. You agree to conduct your own investigation and inspection prior to bidding, and you agree to rely on your own information, judgment, and inspection of the property. Any reliance on any of the information or dimensions made available by Nicholls Auction concerning the property is solely at your risk. The property is being sold 'AS IS' with any and all faults. Please review all information supplied and seek appropriate assistance prior to bidding. All announcements made on the day of the auction will take precedence over all previously provided material and any other oral statements made.

No Contingencies: This online auction, the sale of the property, and Buyer's obligation to purchase the property are NOT contingent upon Buyer's financing, the condition of the property, an appraisal, a survey (property lines), study period or inspections of any kind, or any other condition (except to the extent provided in the applicable contract documents or required by applicable law).

Contract for Sale of Real Property: This property is offered for sale by the seller under the specific terms provided in the "Real Estate Contract of Purchase" available at www.nichollsauction.com within the "DOCUMENTS" section. Please read and review the contract documents thoroughly prior to bidding on any property. If you have not read, reviewed and agree with the Real Estate Contract of Purchase, Do Not Bid!

Bidder Verification: The identity of all bidders will be and must be verified (via phone, email or text). Bidding rights are provisional, and if complete verification is not possible, Nicholls Auction Marketing Group, Inc. will reject your registration, and your ability to bid will be terminated.

Contract Package: At the close of the auction, and after seller confirmation, if you are the Buyer, Nicholls Auction will provide to you the contract package with all required contract documents for you to execute and return to Nicholls Auction. Contract packages will be sent by e-mail to Buyer, who must execute and hand deliver, email, fax or overnight mail the documents back to Nicholls Auction within 24 hours of receipt. If you are the Buyer and you do not execute and return all required contract documents with the remaining earnest money deposit within 24 hours of receipt, you will be in default and subject to legal action. This is a legally binding contract.

Administrative Fee: In the event you are the Buyer and you fail to submit the signed "Real Estate Contract of Purchase" and other contract documents and deposit earnest money as provided in these Auction Terms, you agree to pay Nicholls Auction (and you agree that Nicholls Auction is authorized to charge the credit card provided at registration) an administrative fee of $15,000 (for commercial building), $5,000 (vacant lot), $10,000 (home) or $30,000 (3 parcels purchased together). Additional default remedies are reserved by Nicholls Auction, and the seller, as provided in these Auction Terms, the General Terms and Conditions, and the "Real Estate Contract of Purchase" and related contract documents. All administrative fees are non-refundable.

Agency Disclosure: In all transactions, the auctioneer is acting as agent for the seller, not as buyer's agent. Nicholls Auction Marketing Group, Inc. reserves the right to remove or cancel the bids and or bidding rights and privileges of any party deemed not to be in the best interest of the seller, at any time. At auctions with reserve, the seller and/or auctioneer reserves the right to bid.

Technical Issues: Neither Nicholls Auction nor any of its affiliates or vendors, shall be held responsible or liable for a missed bid or any failure of the software or other computer systems or technology used for online bidding to function properly for any reason. The online bidding and virtual auction will begin to close on Monday, September 14, 2026 @ 12:00 Noon (Eastern). If there is bidding in the last few minutes before the auction closes, extended bidding will commence. If there are no bids within 2-3 minutes, the auction will end. This procedure prohibits any last second "sniping" from taking place. In the unfortunate event of a DDOS attack, server attack, shut down, internet disruption, or technological problem, Nicholls Auction reserves the right, but is not required, to change the bid closing deadline. To minimize the chance of being affected by internet or software issues, please use the "Max Bid" feature.

General Terms and Conditions also Apply: Please review our General Terms and Conditions (the "General Terms") found here: "General Terms and Conditions", which form a part of your agreement with us and govern your access to or use of any of our products or services, including, without limitation, our auctions, our website and our mobile applications
