

Louise and Ervin Crutcher's Egg Nog Party

Louise Crutcher, Miss Mary's daughter, was a wonderful cook. She loved to entertain in her home, and she did so beautifully. She belonged to three bridge clubs and often entertained the club members. Louise and Ervin Crutchers' egg nog party was an annual Christmas event that their many friends looked forward to with great anticipation. Ervin made the egg nog, and Louise prepared a table of goodies. This photo taken at their party was used on a Jack Daniel's calendar for December 1973. Miss Mary is noticeably absent, as she did not drink. Louise also served boiled custard for their family's Christmas dinner and would always have a small silver pitcher filled with Jack Daniel's on the table to be passed for those wanting to add it to the boiled custard.

Charles and Louise Bobo (left) were the children of Lacy Bobo and Mary Evans Bobo. Mary was the longtime proprietress of Miss Mary Bobo's Boarding House. She ran her establishment from 1908 until her death in 1983. Louise Bobo Crutcher (below) lived next door to the hotel. (Courtesy of the Moore County Public Library.)
