Available Furnishings

The Twelve Oaks furnishings and décor are truly unique. Southern Living has called The Twelve Oaks a “gem of the South”. The mansion has been furnished with large scale, high end antiques and furnishings throughout. From the silk draperies to the antique oil paintings, every room was furnished and decorated to be unique and luxurious. Chubb Masterpiece Group estimated it would cost $2,439,600 to replace the furnishings when they did a detailed site visit and report in January of 2019 and that does not include use of an interior designer. The average hotel industry FF&E (furniture, fixtures & equipment) cost to furnish a luxury hotel room is between 60k to 100k per room and does not typically include genuine antiques and artwork. The owners spent well over $1M in total to furnish it and bought many things at auction during the economic downturn; those same items sell for triple at auction these days and for exponentially more at an antique store. We do have appraisals upon request for many of the large pieces.

Instead of offering furnishings by the piece, which would get extremely tedious, the sellers have decided to offer the following furnishing packages to the winning bidder. Please note that this is a separate purchase of contents and business inventory and cannot be added into the price of the home due to tax consequences. If the winning bidder declines the furnishing package, the seller may offer the furnishings in an estate sale or online auction; please follow along at <https://www.facebook.com/thetwelveoaks/> if you'd like to purchase available furnishings.

Some exclusions are noted in the guest rooms or main areas. Overall, there are very few exclusions. The items excluded are family heirlooms or are personal in nature to the owners. Of course, most items in the innkeeper's/owner's residence are excluded¹.

Please note that every effort has been made in the detailed inventory list to be as accurate as possible. We suggest that you take the list and walk in the rooms at the open house and go through what is included and excluded before you purchase the furnishings. The seller is not responsible for any errors in the list. If you purchase a furnishing package, the included areas will be left for you as it was at the open house minus any exclusions noted on the inventory list.

Terms: Should the buyer of the property wish to purchase one of the furnishings packages, a 10% nonrefundable deposit of the total will be due the day of the auction made payable to the closing attorney, “Alexander & Royston, LLP”. The remaining balance will be due at the closing of the property. If the buyer fails to close on the property and has purchased a furnishings package, they will lose their nonrefundable deposit on the purchase of the furnishings and they will not receive any furnishings. All furnishings offered are being sold “as is”.

Furnishing Packages:

Package A: Close to Turnkey (All 8 guest rooms, main areas of the home, exterior furnishings, Christmas decorations, and landscaping tools and equipment) This is a wonderfully put together package that will give you what you need for a very reasonable cost and infinitely less stress and less money than it would cost you to furnish it yourself the way it is furnished now. The cost is $900,000. This includes the following (please see attached detailed inventory list for excluded items):

- All eight luxury guest rooms: This includes all eight guest suites and just about everything in them from the soap holder to the paintings and antiques. This includes every single thing you see in the room at the time of the open houses unless a specific exclusion is mentioned in the attached inventory list. This also includes robes and towels from the Turkish Towel

A TripAdvisor review From Steve M. in Worcestershire, UK:

“...we so wish we could have stayed longer. The Grandeur and elegance of Twelve Oaks is breathtaking...all the rooms we saw, although all different, were beautifully decorated and furnished. The effort and cost that must have gone into furnishing this mansion is a credit to the owners...”

From Jennifer in London, England: “...The rooms and bathrooms are beautiful and comfortable and are individually decorated with antiques and other furnishings to a very high standard. Soft sheets and great water pressure...the breakfast is carefully made from local ingredients and was served in a gorgeous dining room complete with white tablecloths, crystal and great coffee...This hotel gets everything right! I will definitely return...!”

company, luxury bedding, high end mattresses, Egyptian cotton sheets, draperies, electronics, etc. All rooms are furnished with luggage racks, ironing boards and irons, shower curtains, etc. Basically, this includes anything a guest would need for a comfortable stay with very few exclusions that are easy enough to replace.

- Interior Common Areas used for the Inn and staff: This includes the Grand Dining room, formal Parlor, entry hall, 2nd floor hall, 3rd floor hall and Butler's pantry, and kitchen. This also includes everything you need for the kitchen, dining ware, and serve ware.
- Staff Laundry rooms: These are well stocked with everything you need to host your guests. This includes washers and dryers, cleaning supplies and products, cleaning carts, rollaway beds, and all kinds of extras needed for hosting a group.
- Outdoor Furnishings: Rocking chairs, chaises, garden ornaments, planters, two antique arbors, benches, etc. with a couple of exclusions as noted on the inventory.
- Christmas Decorations: The Twelve Oaks is gorgeous at Christmas! There are beautiful, high end garlands and wreaths from Balsam Hill for the exterior windows and doors. Inside, there are garlands for the main staircase and tree decorations for the parlor and dining room. There are also decorations for each guest room that match the theme/décor of the individual rooms. For example, for the Frankly Scarlett Suite, there is a set of ornaments that feature Scarlett in each of her gowns from the movie along with Magnolia blooms and a tree skirt that looks like her "prayer gown". In Salvatore, we have a beautiful masculine garland with leather hair on hide stockings. In Cannonball Run, we have civil war ornaments and stockings with civil war insignia. We will include 4th of July/Memorial Day decorations including patriotic bunting, pillows, etc (package A only). An individual inventory is not included for this category for practical reasons.
- Landscaping Tools and Equipment: This includes everything that was purchased to maintain the grounds here (or to hire a gardener). An individual inventory is not included for this category for practical reasons. Some of the notable items include: a Zero Turn Husqvarna 48" mower with bagger, Husqvarna backpack blower, edger, and weed-eater and other necessary tools (shovels, spreader, backpack weed sprayer, electric bush trimmers, pruning shears, rake, hoses (under deck), and other general landscaping necessities.

A TripAdvisor review from Taylor Allison from Charlotte, NC: 5 Star B&B

"What a beautiful home and property! My wife and I stayed one night just before Christmas and enjoyed the beautiful holiday decorations throughout. You can tell Nicole and John have put a lot of time and effort renovating each and every room in this southern mansion! The tall ceilings, original wood floors, intricate molding, and top notch furniture and bathroom fixtures are absolutely stunning. We have stayed in many B&B's and this one may top the list. We were fortunate to stay in Katherine's Mirror Image Suite and loved every feature - a comfy king size bed with plush sheets, claw foot tub, one-of-a-kind antique rib cage shower, and gas fireplace....."

From Kim P. in Clearwater, FL: "The Twelve Oaks was spotless. The attention to detail was amazing. The furnishings were lovely. We were amazed at the thought of moving such large pieces up to the third story! We stayed in the Cannonball Run Suite. Gracious John told us how they did each room one at a time. He prided Nicole on how she so skillfully obtained such period pieces... We would also like to ask the make and type of the king mattress in our room? As it was beyond luxurious and comfortable...Just amazing. Thank you, beautiful work."

From Hannah C. from Grant, AL: From every light fixture, painting, and piece of furniture, the entire home was magnificently decorated.

A review on Tripadvisor from Elizabeth S. in Atlanta, GA: "I was instantly charmed by this beautiful antebellum mansion in Covington's historic district. The grounds are lovely and the interior is very well maintained. We loved the period furnishings, which gave the place an authenticity. At the same time, care was taken to provide all the modern conveniences which today's traveler has come to expect: complimentary Wi-Fi, flat screen tv, remote control fireplaces, private baths with showers and/or deep soaking tubs with jets (ours even had colored lights). No detail has been overlooked: thick, Turkish towels in the bathrooms (and even dark colored towels with "makeup" embroidered on them - clever); luxurious, romantic beds, l'occitane bath products. There is an honor bar on the second floor stocked with snacks, drinks, a full size fridge and microwave for shared use....There are complimentary movies and books you can borrow. I am so glad we decided to come here! Kudos to our gracious hosts. They have distinguished themselves in the fine art of hospitality."

We go to Bed and Breakfast's regularly, but this is a step above. There is a reason it is ranked as one of the top ten B&B's in America... As you pull up the driveway, you are immediately impressed by the magnificent house. The grounds are beautiful. The dining room is beautifully appointed with Fritz and Floyd diningware and a beautiful chandelier which caught my wife's eye as we entered the house... On the second floor, my wife loved the replica dresses Scarlet wore in "Gone with the Wind". As we entered the Steel Magnolia room, my wife was ecstatic. It was everything she had pictured - from the impressive four poster bed with Egyptian cotton sheets to the lovely antique furnishings. Normally, you do not write about the bathroom. But in this case, the magnificent two person shower was only upstaged by the Jacuzzi tub for two with Chromatherapy lighting. Even the soft Turkish bathrobes are nicer than most luxury hotels... You will wish tomorrow was another day so you can stay
