Section 3. Annual Meetings. The first meeting of the Association will be held within one year from the date of incorporation of the Association. The date and time of subsequent regular annual meetings shall be set by the Board. Meetings shall be of the Members or their alternates.

Section 4. Special Meetings. The President may call special meetings. In addition, it shall be the duty of the President to call a special meeting of the Association if so directed by resolution of a majority of a quorum of the Board of Directors or upon a petition signed by Members representing at least ten percent of the total eligible Members of the Association. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the written notice.

Section 5. Notice of Meetings. Written notice stating the place, day, and hour of any meeting of the Members shall be delivered, either personally or by mail, to each Voting Member entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of such meeting, by or at the direction of the President or the Secretary or the officers or persons calling the meeting. Article III

Board of Directors: Number, Powers, Meetings

A. Composition and Selection.

Section 1. Governing Body: Composition. The affairs of the Association shall be governed by its Board of Directors, each of whom shall have one vote. Except with respect to Directors appointed by the Declarant, the Directors shall be Members or spouses of such Members; provided, however, no person and his or her spouse may serve on the Board at the same time. In the case of an Owner which is a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership, the person designated in writing to the secretary of the Association as the representative of such entity shall be eligible to serve as a director.

Section 2. Directors During Period of Declarant Control. The Declarant is entitled to appoint the members of the Board of Directors during the "Period of Declarant Control" as that term is defined in the Declaration.

Section 3. Number of Directors. The initial Board of Directors shall consist of between one and three members as may be determined by the Declarant. After the expiration of the Period of Declarant Control, the Members may decide to expand the size of the Board to not more than seven members.

Section 5. Nomination of Directors. Except with respect to Directors selected by the Declarant, nominations for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee appointed by the Board from the Members. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a Chairman, who shall be a member of the Board of Directors, and three or more Members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board not less than thirty days prior to each annual meeting of the Members to serve a term of one year or until their successors are appointed, and such appointment shall be announced at each such annual meeting. Nominations for Directors to be elected by the Members shall also be permitted from the floor. All candidates shall have a reasonable opportunity to communicate their qualifications to the Members and to solicit votes.

Section 6. Election and Term of Office. Elections for those Board members not appointed by the Declarant shall be held at the regular annual meeting of the Association. The term of office shall be one year. Directors may be elected to serve any number of consecutive terms. If the Board is increased to five or more Directors, the Board may establish longer and staggered terms of office.

Each voting Member shall be entitled to cast one vote for each Lot owned for as many candidates for the Board as there are positions to be filled. There shall be no cumulative voting. The candidates who receive the highest number of votes equaling the positions to be filled shall be declared elected.

Section 7. Removal of Directors and Vacancies. The Declarant may remove any Director appointed by it and may fill any vacancy in any directorship it appointed. Any director elected by the Members may be removed, with or without cause, by the vote of Members holding a majority of the votes entitled to be cast for the election of such director. Any director elected by the Members whose removal is sought shall be given notice prior to any meeting called for that purpose. Upon removal of a director elected by the Members, a successor shall then and there be elected by the Members to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term of such director.

Any director elected by the Members who has three consecutive unexcused absences from Board meetings or who is delinquent in the payment of any assessment or other charge due the Association for more than thirty days may be removed by a majority of the Directors present at a regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present, and a successor may be appointed by the Board to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term. In the event of the death, disability, or resignation of a director elected by the Members, a vacancy may be declared by the Board, and it may appoint a successor.

B. Meetings.

Section 8. Organizational Meetings. The first meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual meeting of the membership shall be held within ten days thereafter at such time and place as shall be fixed by the Board.

Section 9. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place as shall be determined from time to time by a majority of the Directors. Notice of the time and place of the meeting shall be communicated to the Directors not less than four days prior to the meeting; provided, however, notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who has signed a waiver of notice or a written consent to the holding of the meeting.

Section 10. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held when called by written notice signed by the President of the Association or by a majority of the Directors. The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the nature of any special business to be considered. The notice shall be given to each director at least 24 hours before the meeting by one of the following methods: (a) by personal delivery; (b) written notice by first class mail, postage prepaid; (c) by telephone communication, either directly to the director or to a person at the director's office or home who would reasonably be expected to communicate such notice promptly to the director; or (d) by fax or e-mail.

Section 11. Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or whenever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if (a) a quorum is present, and (b) either before or after the meeting each of the Directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed given to any director who attends the meeting without protesting before or at its commencement about the lack of adequate notice.

Section 12. Quorum of Board of Directors. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the votes of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of the Board of Directors. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action is taken approved by at least a majority of the Directors remaining at the meeting. If any meeting of the Board cannot be held because a quorum is not present, a majority of the Directors who are present at such meeting may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than five nor more than thirty days from the date of the original meeting was called. At the reconvened meeting, if a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice.

Section 13. Compensation. No director shall receive any compensation from the Association. A director may be reimbursed for expenses incurred on behalf of the Association upon approval by a majority of the other Directors.

Section 14. Conduct of Meetings. The President shall preside over all meetings of the Board of Directors, and the Secretary shall keep a minute book of meetings of the Board of Directors, recording therein all resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors and all transactions and proceedings occurring at such meetings.

Section 15. Open Meetings. Subject to the provisions of Section 16 of this Article, all meetings of the Board shall be open to all Members, but Members other than Directors may not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless permission to speak is requested on his or her behalf by a director. In such case, the President may limit the time any Voting Member may speak. Notwithstanding the above, the President may adjourn any meeting of the Board and reconvene in executive session, excluding the Members, to discuss matters of a sensitive nature, such as pending or threatening litigation, personnel matters, etc.

Section 16. Action Without a Formal Meeting. Any action that may be taken at a meeting of the Directors may also be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by a majority of the Directors, and such consent shall have the same force and effect as a majority vote.

C. Powers and Duties.

Section 17. Powers. The Board shall be responsible for the affairs of the Association, the maintenance of the Common Elements and the right to enforce the provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws, collectively the affairs of the Association. (e) any financial or other interest which the managing agent may have in any firm providing goods or services to the Association shall be disclosed promptly to the Board of Directors;

(f) commencing at the end of the month in which the first Lot is sold and closed to a party other than to Cambridge Isenhour Homes, Inc., financial reports shall be prepared for the Association at least semi-annual containing all information required under NCGS 47F-3-118 of the Act including:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Declaration, these By-Laws, or the Articles of Incorporation, no security interest of any kind shall be placed on any portion of the Common Elements without the affirmative vote or written consent, or any combination thereof, of at least eighty-percent (80%) of the Members as required by NCGS 47F-3-112 provided that the consent of the Declarant is also obtained during the Period of Declarant Control.

The failure of the Board to enforce any provision of the Declaration, By-Laws, or any rule or regulation shall not be deemed a waiver of the right of the Board to do so thereafter. Subject to the notice and hearing requirement of NCGS 47f-3-107.1, the Board shall also have the right to levy fines, impose suspensions, levy and impose assessments for damages as provided in NCGS 47F-3-107, and impose liens under NCGS 47F-3-116.
