The auctioneers, the seller, their agents, and employees shall not be liable for any injuries, damages or losses of any nature whatsoever arising from any person's attendance and/or participation in the auction. All persons together with their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, hereby release the auctioneers, the seller, their agents and their employees and hold them harmless from any duty of care towards them and all claims which may otherwise have accrued to them whether or not any such claim may arise through the negligence of any person or from any of the risks, dangers or hazards occurring in the course of their association with the auctioneer and the seller.
- 2.2. Upon registration as contemplated in clause 1.4 of these rules of auction, prospective bidders may be required to pay a refundable deposit determined by the auctioneers from time to time.
- 2.3. All refundable deposits will be refunded only once the deposit reflects in the auctioneers' trust account and only if the bidder was unsuccessful in purchasing any items.
- 2.4. All deposits and other monies belonging to bidders and sellers will be held by the auctioneers as per section 65(2) of the CPA, which requires suppliers to hold and account for consumers' property/assets in their possession, including any prepayment, deposit, membership fee, or other money, or any other property/assets belonging to or ordinarily under the control of a consumer.
- 2.5. The auctioneer reserves the right to revoke any bidders' number at any time during the auction in terms of sub-regulation 28(3) of the CPA, thereby refusing a person the right to remain on the auction premises in the event that such a person repeatedly behaves in such a way so as to disrupt the auction.

3. GENERAL AUCTION PROCEDURES

- 3.1. The auctioneer conducts the auction as an agent, on behalf of the seller, and accepts no liability whatsoever. In the event of any disputes, the purchaser shall only have a claim against the seller, unless such disputes are as a result of the auctioneers' negligence or conduct.
- 3.2. In the event of an auction subject to a reserved or upset price, and provided notice has been given in advance in terms of section 45(4) of the CPA, the seller or the auctioneer, or any other person on behalf of the seller, or the auctioneer, as the case may be, may bid at the auction up to the reserve price but not equal to or exceeding the reserve price.
- 3.3. In the event of an absolute or auction without reserve, the auction will be conducted in accordance with the provisions of sub-regulation 20(18) and (19) of the CPA. In particular, goods will not be offered or sold at an absolute or auction without - reserve unless there is a bona fide intention at the time of the advertising and at the time of the auction to sell the goods and transfer ownership of the goods, regardless of the amount of the highest and last bid, to the highest bidder, without any requirement for a minimum bid, and without allowing competing bids of any type by the seller, or any agent of the seller. In addition, the seller of the goods cannot withdraw the goods from auction after the auction is opened and there is public solicitation or calling for bids at an absolute or auction without reserve.

- 3.4. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 3.3 herein, a secured party or other lien holder or any individual party who is not the seller is not prohibited from bidding at an auction without reserve, provided such bidding does not constitute, nor is tantamount to the direct or indirect establishment or agreement to the establishment of a reserve price on the goods by the seller, or the auctioneer, or anyone aiding or assisting, or acting on behalf of the seller, or the auctioneer, as the case may be.
 - 3.5. As per sub-regulation 20(19)(d) of the CPA, certain goods may be offered with reserve and others offered absolute or without reserve at the same auction and at the same time, provided non-misleading advertisement makes it clear, through appropriate emphasis, which goods are being offered by each method.
 - 3.6. The control of the auction shall be entirely managed by the auctioneer, who has the sole right to regulate the bidding process and control the bid increments.
 - 3.7. The auctioneer may only sell to bidders registered in terms of clauses 1.4 and 1.7 herein. No bid will be taken from unregistered persons without bidder numbers as per sub-regulations 24(h) and 28(2) of the CPA.
 - 3.8. In terms of section 55(1) of the CPA, goods are sold "voetstoots", where is, as is, with no guarantees or warranties; express or implied. Bidders are advised to inspect the goods on offer prior to the commencement of the auction in accordance with sub-regulation 28(5) of the CPA. A bid shall be taken as proof that the bidder has acquainted himself or herself with the condition of the goods for which he or she bids.
 - 3.9. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 3.8 herein, the stipulations of sub-regulation 32(c) of the CPA shall apply with regard to motor vehicle auctions.
 - 3.10. Bidders must direct their bids to the auctioneer or official bid assistants. The practice whereby bidders connive to suppress prices or intimidate other bidders is prohibited and may be treated as per clause 2.5 herein.
 - 3.11. Every bid shall constitute a firm offer to purchase the goods or lots on offer for the amount bid, provided that the bidder is permitted, in terms of section 45(3) of the CPA, to retract his or her bid before the hammer falls or the auctioneer concludes bidding in any customary manner.
 - 3.12. In accordance with sub-regulation 28(6) of the CPA, subject to any reserved price and the acceptance of the highest bid by the owner or the seller, the highest bidder, when the auctioneer announces the completion of the sale by the fall of the hammer, or any other customary manner, is the purchaser of the goods or lots on auction. Should any dispute arise between two or more bidders regarding the identity of the highest bidder and purchaser, the decision of the auctioneer shall be final and binding.
 - 3.13. Once the reserve price determined by the Seller is reached, the auctioneer is authorised to sell to the highest bidder at the close of the auction.
 - 3.14. Should the reserve price not be met, only the highest bidder will be entitled to negotiate with the Seller in terms of the sale price. If the negotiations do not result in the sale of the lot/s such lot/s will remain unsold.
 - 3.15. In the event where reserved price is not met in terms of regulation 28(6) and the seller has to accept or decline the highest bid after the completion of the auction, the highest bidder is bound by the auction rules and shall not have the opportunity to withdraw his bid until the seller has confirmed the sale or the stipulated acceptance period has expired. Negotiations between the highest bidder and the seller may arise during such acceptance period and should any subsequent bids be received during such acceptance period; the new bidder will register in terms of the rules of auction applicable to the auction and will have only one opportunity to submit a higher bid. The highest bidder of the first instance shall have the sole right of refusal to equal or better such subsequent bid obtained. Any goods or lots knocked provisionally to the highest bidder subject to approval by the seller in terms of this clause 3.15 is deemed not to be sold in terms of section 45(3) and sub-regulation 28(6) of the CPA until the seller has accepted the offer.
 - 3.16. Upon the confirmation of the sale to the selected bidder, such bidder may not necessarily be the highest bidder, by the seller, will cause the confirmation period to expire.
 - 3.17. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 3.12 above, and subject to the provisions of clause 3.3 herein, the owner or the seller, reserves the ultimate right, apart from the auctioneer, to fix a minimum bid for acceptance and to decline to sell to the highest or any bidder, or even to accept any lower bid, without giving any reasons.
 - 3.18. The auctioneer, with the approval of the owner or the seller, reserves the right, at any time, to stop the auction, to reject any or all bids and to withdraw any goods or lots, or part thereof from the auction, either before or during the auction, without giving any reasons and without attracting any liability for such action.
 - 3.19. Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulation 24(h) of the CPA, goods or lots may be grouped or divided with the unanimous consent of all buyers.
 - 3.20. In the event of an auction sale requiring the consent of any statutory authority or any Court of Law, then the conclusion of the auction sale is subject to the granting of such consent.
 - 3.21. Buyers are not permitted to enter into any transaction on the sellers' premises. In particular, the re-auctioning of goods by bidders is prohibited within the premises of the auctioneer or the seller.

4. FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

- 4.1. Once goods or lots have been sold to the purchaser as contemplated in clause 3.12 herein, the sale of the goods or lots is irrevocable and cannot be withdrawn, and the purchaser shall be liable for the settlement of such purchases, and hereby binds himself or herself as surety and principal debtor, subject to the provisions of clauses 1.5 and 1.6 herein, failing which the auctioneer, the seller or the owner, reserves the right to demand payment to recover the amount owing, including any interest, legal costs and collection costs thereof.
- 4.2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 19 with regard to the delivery of goods, ownership of the goods or lots purchased on auction, and the risk thereof shall pass to the buyer upon the fall of the hammer. No complaints will be entertained

- thereafter. However, ownership and title will only be transferred upon full settlement as contemplated in clauses 4.3 and 4.4 hereunder.
- 4.3. With regard to movable goods, settlement for goods or lots purchased as contemplated in clause 4.1 herein, including advertised fees and commission, is payable upon delivery on the day of the auction. Should the auction finish after banking hours, purchases must be settled by 12h00 the day after the auction or the first working day after the day of the auction where the day after falls on a weekend or statutory public holiday.
 - 4.4. With regard to immovable property, settlement for goods or lots purchased as contemplated in clause 4.1 herein, including advertised fees and commission, is payable upon the signing of a written agreement in respect of the sale of such immovable property by the purchaser and the seller.
 - 4.5. Auctions are cash transactions and not subject to any suspensive conditions such as the granting of finance to the purchaser. Therefore, bidders intending to finance their purchases must obtain irrevocable approval or guarantee from their sponsors prior to the commencement of the auction, so that they will be able to fulfil the settlement requirements contained in clauses 4.3 and 4.4 herein.
 - 4.6. In line with clause 4.5 above, payment terms regarding the settlement of purchases in terms of these rules of auction are strictly cash deposit or EFT, payable in full, without deduction and free of set off for any claim the purchaser may have against the seller or the owner.
 - 4.7. Cheques are not accepted as payment for purchases. This includes bank guaranteed cheques and bank cashier's cheques.
 - 4.8. All payments must be made in South African ZAR currency, into the specific Trust Account nominated by the auctioneer for each auction and provided to the purchaser in the Notice to Bidders forming part of these Rules of Auction.
 - 4.9. For security reasons, Tirhani Auctioneers does not accept cash at its auction sites. Cash deposits must be made at the bank and the proof thereof must be presented on site or transmitted digitally. Cash payments shall attract a cash handling fee of 2% calculated of the invoice total.
 - 4.10. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 4.9 herein, the money laundering requirements of Section 28 and Regulation 22B of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act (Act 38 of 2001) requires Tirhani Auctioneers to report cash transactions in excess of R24,999-99 (Twenty Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Ninety Nine Rands and Ninety Nine Cents) or an aggregate of smaller amounts which combine to come to this amount if it appears that the transactions involving those smaller amounts are fractions of one transaction.
 - 4.11. Should the auction be subject to the payment of Value Added Tax (VAT); all bids will be exclusive of VAT and VAT will be added to the bid price at the rate applicable at the time the auction is conducted. The bid price plus the VAT portion, including any commission and other fees, where applicable, shall constitute the purchase price and shall be due and payable simultaneously.
 - 4.12. Invoices will be made out to purchasers who are registered bidders in terms of clauses 1.4 and 1.7 herein. No changes to purchase statements will be allowed, and the splitting of invoices among buyers is prohibited. The registered bidder is responsible for the payment of the full invoice.
 - 4.13. Should the purchaser default, a forfeit fee not exceeding 10% of the full purchase price or the total costs of advertising and conducting the auction, including any additional costs that may have been reasonably incurred in accordance with regulation 21(2)(l) of the CPA, whichever is the lesser. In such an event of default by the purchaser, the refundable registration deposit will be retained and used to set-off the forfeit fee contemplated in this clause 4.13, or part thereof if the fee is lesser. Should the retained refundable registration deposit be greater, the difference will be refunded to the purchaser.
 - 4.14. Should the seller reject the purchaser's offer or default for whatever reason, the purchaser will not be charged any fee or commission, and where such fee or commission has already been paid by the purchaser, such fee or commission will immediately be refunded to the purchaser, including the refundable registration deposit. The parties shall have no further obligations under these rules of auction thereafter.
 - 4.15. In the event of any claim by the buyer in terms of the asset/s purchased, the buyer must take up such claim with the seller and not the auctioneer. The auctioneer acts solely on behalf of the seller and is indemnified against any claim by the buyer against the seller. The auctioneer may as his discretion attempt to mediate any claim by the buyer against the seller.
 - 4.16. Without exception, no assets will be released to the purchaser until the total invoice amount has been paid in full and the funds paid reflect in the balance of the specific Trust Account nominated by the auctioneers. In the case of immovable property, the transaction deposit must reflect in the balance of the specific Trust Account nominated by the auctioneers for the offer to purchase to be submitted to the seller for acceptance.

5. ONLINE AUCTIONS

- 5.1. All applicable rules listed above apply to online auctions as well as live onsite auctions.
- 5.2. Registering on the system does not automatically entitle a bidder to participate in the auction.
- 5.3. All bidders must be registered and have fulfilled the registration criteria before they will be allowed to participate in the online auction. The registration conditions may vary from auction to auction. These registration requirements will be detailed in the bidder's participation form which is downloadable from the website for the specific auction.
- 5.4. A refundable registration deposit may be charged to a bidder upon registration. This deposit will be refunded to the bidder should the bidder not have been a successful buyer at the auction.
- 5.5. If a bidder becomes a successful buyer, then the deposit will only be refunded once all the purchased lots have been removed from the auction site. The deposit cannot be used as a part payment of the auction invoice.
- 5.6. The online bidding system acts as the auctioneer and regulates the bidding including the bid increments.
- 5.7. If a bidder places an incorrect bid, the bidder is entitled to have the incorrect bid removed. The bidder must immediately inform the auctioneers of the incorrect bid and request that this bid be removed. No bids will be modified or removed once the bidding for a lot has closed.
- 5.8. Should the bidding system fail of go offline for any reason whatsoever, the auctioneers will extend the closing time by an appropriate amount of time relative to the amount of time the system was offline, with a minimum of 30mins.
- 5.9. On an online auction all lots have a reserve value set. Once this value has been reached or surpassed by the bidders, the lot will be deemed to be sold to the highest bidder and the bidder can no longer withdraw from the purchase.

- 5.10. All online auctions have extended bidding time implementation. Even though an online auction has an advertised closing time, this time will extend beyond the advertised closing time if there is active bidding on the lot within the last ten minutes of the closing time. This activity will trigger an extension of the closing time and this process will continue until there is no more activity in the last ten minutes of bidding.
