

VAA Rookie Contest

Entry Fee: There is no registration fee, but all contestants must bring at least three (3) items with a value greater than $50.00 to sell during the contest. All items are considered donations to the VAA and will not be returned.

Prize: Winner will receive a Champion Belt Buckle and a one-year paid membership to the VAA.

Contest Criteria

Competition is open to all current members and associate members of the VAA. (Must be a Virginia resident) who are either 18 years of age or less, or who have been licensed as an auctioneer for less than two (2) years.

Contestants must not have previously won this contest.

There will be only one round judged for the Rookie Contest. The winner and first runner up will be the only positions announced.

- Rookie Contestants will sell in the preliminary round along with the senior division auctioneer championship contestants and will be judged by the same judges according to the same criteria.
- If a rookie contestant scores high enough to make it into the finals round, they may also elect to compete in the finals for senior division championship provided they are a licensed VA auctioneer over the age of 18 and are a member of the VAA.

Champion will always represent the VAA with high standards of professionalism, commitment, and integrity.

The application for contest entry deadline is noon Friday, January 24, 2025.

NAME: _____

COMPANY: _____

PHONE: _____

EMAIL: _____

Mail completed form: VAA, 48 N. Emerson Avenue, Suite 300, Greenwood, IN 46143